

"BIG JIM" AGAIN IN SERIOUS TROUBLE

King of Gary's Italian
Colony Accused of Dispensing Moonshine

Big "Jim" Caesar, king of Gary's colony of Italians is again in trouble. For the fifth time since the Volstead act went into effect over two years ago, Caesar was arrested by the Gary police for violating the state liquor law. It was only last month that he was arrested for the same offense which time orders were issued to confiscate the bar fixtures which were yanked out and taken to the Gary city market where they were stored. For his fourth offense Caesar received an $80 fine and a 30 day jail sentence in the Gary police court. He then took an appeal and furnished bond.

Caesar who is a political power among his nationality made every effort to get the city to return his fixtures and when he found this impossible he installed a lunch counter in his place at 1541 Washington street and reopened his place for business. On a tip that Caesar was still in the old tricks again, a police "stool" went into the Caesar emporium yesterday morning and it is alleged he bought a pop bottle of moonshine, a common and popular way of dispensing liquor by "dry" saloons on the south side. According to the police report obtained two marked one dollar bills from Caesar with which the agent had purchased the moonshine.

PLAN INAUGURAL FETE FOR M'CRAY

Various Bodies Arrange for Attendance of Ceremonies

The Indiana Society of Chicago, composed of Hoosiers, who, while exiled in the Windy City, are still interested in their home state, will send a delegation of members to Indianapolis, Jan. 10, for the inauguration of Warren T. McCray as Governor of Indiana. It is expected, too, that Mr. McCray's inauguration will attract large delegations from many parts of the state. Citizens of Kentland, proud of the distinction which has come to one of their townsmen, are planning to come in force.

The Columbia Club will entertain the visiting members of the Indiana Society of Chicago at a luncheon to be held soon after the inaugural ceremony. It is expected that both the incoming and outgoing Governors also will be present at the luncheon. Lucius Teter, president of the Indiana Society of Chicago, has named a special committee to plan for the trip to Indianapolis. Charles W. McGuire is chairman of this committee, which includes Louis W. Landman, Stephen S. Stratton, Walter J. Riley, Finley P. Mount, John C. Shaffer, John T. McCutcheon, Wilbur D. Nesbitt, George I. Buckingham, Harry R. Kurlie, Edward Rector and William A. Heath.

SAY HE PLOTTED PRESIDENT'S DEATH

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 29.—A deportation warrant has been issued against Pietro Petre, an Italian anarchist of Chicago, convicted of plotting the death of President Wilson. It was announced here today by U. S. Atty. Robertson. Petre is now under sentence of three and a half years for his share in the death plot. He has appealed the sentence and his deportation will be held in abeyance until the appeal is decided. Petre and two other anarchists plotted to kill the president and Secretary McAdoo while the trio were serving terms in the federal prison at Leavenworth for opposing the selective service law. They planned that the one released first would be commissioned to carry out the assassinations. Petre first out, was arrested at Cincinnati by federal agents.

MAN AND WOMAN FATALLY WOUNDED

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Mrs. Frances Berano, 39, widowed mother of seven children and Tony Costello, 33 years old, and father of five children, are in a hospital today both fatally wounded. Costello, who, according to the police, had for some time been trying to force his attentions upon Mrs. Berano, early this morning crouched in the entrance to her basement home in "Little Italy," and when she entered fired two shots which took effect in her head and abdomen. Costello fled to his own home a block away and fired a bullet into his head. No hope is held out for the lives of either by officials of the hospitals to which they were taken.
